6. Declaration

Camp XL undertakes to protect your confidentiality, and unless otherwise compelled by law, the information you provide here will be seen only by staff at our central office (and/or our Board of Directors), and the leader with on-site responsibility for your chosen Holiday.

We take our legal responsibilities very seriously, and equally highly our responsibilities to the individuals and families of those attending our Holidays. We therefore require all our prospective leaders to complete and sign the following declarations, and to then submit to an Enhanced Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) Disclosure. Due to the exemption that this position has from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, this process will reveal all prior convictions as well as current cautions, pending prosecutions, and other relevant information known to the police authorities. Please note that a criminal record will not of itself bar you from serving on an XL Holiday, but where we have reason to believe that the information revealed could place others at risk, we reserve the explicit right to decline your application. Ultimately all Camp XL volunteers serve at the sole discretion of the Managing Director who will consider multiple factors when making his/her decision, including but not limited to the information revealed through the CRB Disclosure.

Have you received treatment for a mental illness at any stage in the past 3 years? yes no
If YES, please provide details

Do you have any criminal convictions, "spent" or otherwise; or are you at present charged or under caution for an alleged criminal offence? yes no

May we have permission to share your contact details with others attending the same XL Holiday? yes no
We will keep these on file, but will not release them to any other additional party unless compelled by law.

- I have read and endorse Camp XL's Statement of Faith
- I have completed this form accurately to the best of my knowledge
- I agree to lay aside any denominational preferences for the good of the team and the Holiday
- I recognise that unless I am faithful in prayer, I will work in vain.
I promise to pray for all aspects of the Holiday on which I serve.
